Dear Parents,

Greetings of the day!

We at Design Derivatives are happy to introduce the International Design Olympiad (IDO), which has built the reputation of inspiring students to build Creative Confidence through Design and Design Thinking. A creative mindset leads to innovation. IDO has helped students to recognize, groom and act on their creativity. We provide an age appropriate, unique platform where students feel free to express themselves without fear and doubt. "My thoughts matter, my imagination matters" is how we empower students through this journey. We believe that students experiencing IDO will contribute effectively towards initiatives taken by the central government like Atal tinkering labs, Start-up India and others. The National Education Policy 2020 has also emphasised on Creativity.

Salient features of the International Design Olympiad (IDO):

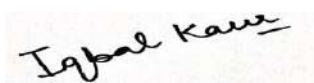

1. It consists of 3 distinct rounds of activity – which brings the creative best in students
